Learning through play

As you know our business is PLAY. This is how children learn at a young age. Learning can be observed in so many ways. As the year has gone on, we notice that the children like being challenged and are enjoying engaging in maths and literacy experiences throughout their day. We provided a balance of structured and unstructured times of the day and the children will often use their own sense of agency to choose learning experiences that will challenge them and build on their literacy and numeracy skills.

Christmas is in full swing at Preschool

We have been loving engaging in preschool learning experiences about Christmas. The children have read Christmas stories, written letters to Santa, engaged in Christmas craft activities and shared stories about how they celebrate Christmas with their families. This has opened up discussions about how people celebrate occasions differently, not only here in Casino but around the world. The children will be bringing home their Christmas creations to decorate their homes.

Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays

We have absolutely loved getting to know all our families at Little Jarjums Preschool this year. We are saddened that this is our last week with our Jarjums, but we take comfort knowing that we will be seeing you all in the community and at 'big school'. For those families returning next year, we look forward to what 2022 will bring and can't wait to get back into it after the holidays. The first day back for the Burbi Jarjums (Group A) will be Tuesday 1 February, and for the Gurrahman Jarjums (Group B) it will be Thursday 3 February.

We wish you all a Merry Christmas and safe and happy holiday.

From,

Amy, Leanne, Astoria and Elysha.
