Welcome back!

We welcome all our Jarjums and families back for what we hope will be a wonderful term 2. As everyone is aware, term 1 was very chaotic with the devastating floods. This term we hope to resettle the Jarjums into preschool expectations and routine promptly, so that we can delve deep into our learning and play. Please keep updated on our Class Dojo and Facebook pages for correspondence relating to preschool events/business and communication about your child's interests and learning at preschool.

A green thumb...

The boys in the Burbi Group have been very busy working in our outdoor learning environment, filling our green bins with all sorts of weeds, twigs, and branches that have fallen off the trees. This week they extended their interest by using scissors to prune dead twigs on the trees and tidy up our gardens. To build on this interest, in the coming weeks we will provide the children with various seeds to plant in our preschool gardens. The children will have the opportunity to watch the seedlings grow into fresh produce that we can cook/eat at preschool.

Ahoy Me Hearties!!

Towards the end of last term, pirate play in our preschool boat was a strong interest in both the preschool groups. This term we have supported this interest by providing the children with various pirate props, stimulus pictures and equipment to incorporate into their play. The children have used these resources to engage in role play experiences, map drawing and 'finding treasure' around our preschool learning environment.

Lest We Forget

We were delighted to have Zahli and Oliver represent our preschool at the Casino Anzac March in the holidays. They walked with the rest of the children from Casino West Public School, and we are very proud of their efforts in the March.

This week our Burbi Group attending the Casino West Public School Anzac Memorial Assembly. During this assembly we paid our respects to the diggers who fought tirelessly for our country. The children commemorated the occasion by creating an ANZAC wreath to place underneath the flagpole at “big school”.

We are different

This term we are engaging in learning experiences celebrating the differences between us and exploring the cultures, heritages, and traditions on other people from around the world. We have begun by reading stories about various family dynamics and discussing what our own families look like and how they are different. We would love involvement from our families, particular those of varying backgrounds and cultures. If you would like to offer any insight, information or learning on your heritage, please speak with our educators.
