Week 7 – Term 4

Principal's Report

Our school attended the Remembrance Service last Tuesday. Our School Captains, Corey and Cheyne laid a wreath on behalf of Casino West School at the Mafeking Lamp. The councillors also attended the service.

The primary students attended the Cultural tour of Casino with Uncle Shane, Teachers and Aunty Nora with highlights that included a visit to river, the RV Village which is a significant site and other places, ending with the Jumbanna Art Shed for Johnny cakes and sausage sizzle.

Children were also treated to a didgeridoo performance and art appreciation of the gallery. Everyone had a wonderful time on their trip.

As part of school redevelopment, the foyer is now complete with student art work displayed in frames, a TV for visitors with photographs of this year, our new school logo and furniture. We also have new directional signs within the school that will help you find your way around the school. Harry Armstrong has done a marvellous job of the signage for our school. The school will also have some new motivational flags out the front soon.

As part of our mentoring program, our Year 4 and 5 students went to St Mary's Preschool to do inside activities with the children. Next week they will be going to Jumbunna preschool. This program helps to strengthen the relationships between our beginning and senior students in the school.

Newsletters and latest news can be found on our school website, <http://www.casinowest-p.schools.nsw.edu.au> or check us on facebook.

Don't forget, ask your kids what they learnt at school each day, this is so good for them. Don't take 'nothing' for an answer!
Regards Michael Taylor, Principal.

A BIG THANK YOU TO EVERYONE WHO CAME TO OUR BOOKFAIR

Thanks so much everyone for supporting the Book Fair.

It was great to see so many children enjoying the opportunity to look at and for some to purchase a brand new favourite book.

We raised a little over $1,700 which meant that I was able to select $500 worth of new books for our library as well.

Congratulations Trent Llewellyn who won the $60 raffle.

Regards Mrs Bryant.

YEAR 6 FAREWELL INFORMATION

This year, Year 6 will be hosting a DISCO at the RSM club and we invite students in Year 3 to Year 5 to join us.

It will cost $2 to enter on the night. Drinks and chips will be available for purchase. The Disco operates from 7.00pm - 8:30pm. Payment is at the door.

We are also having a PHOTO BOOTH to commemorate our CLASS of 2014. This is an opportunity for friends, parents and family members to come together and celebrate.

The cost is $2 per photo. Pay on the night.

IN ADDITION Aunty Sue and SLSO's will be offering a PAMPERING SESSION free of charge for all Year 6 girls on Tuesday 2nd December from recess to home time in the Hall. This will be a relaxing space, offering hair, nail & make-up services.
